Location: Remote / Various (e.g., San Francisco, Austin, New York)

Job Type: Full-time

Salary: $90,000–$120,000 per year (depending on experience)

About the Role

We are looking for a Cloud Engineer to join our team and help design, build, and maintain our cloud infrastructure. You will play a key role in managing cloud environments, implementing cloud-native solutions, and ensuring high availability, scalability, and security for our applications.

Key Responsibilities

- Design, implement, and manage cloud infrastructure on platforms such as AWS, Azure, or Google Cloud.
 - Automate cloud infrastructure provisioning and management using tools like Terraform, CloudFormation, or Ansible.
 - Ensure the security and compliance of cloud systems and applications by applying best practices and monitoring security policies.
 - Collaborate with development and operations teams to build scalable, resilient cloud solutions.
 - Troubleshoot and resolve cloud-related issues in production environments.
 - Monitor cloud system performance and optimize resources to ensure cost-effectiveness.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Information Technology, or a related field.
- Experience working with cloud platforms (AWS, Azure, Google Cloud).

- Proficiency with infrastructure-as-code tools (e.g., Terraform, AWS CloudFormation).
 - Knowledge of networking, security, and cloud architecture best practices.
 - Experience with containerization technologies (Docker, Kubernetes).
 - Strong programming/scripting skills (e.g., Python, Bash).
 - Familiarity with CI/CD pipelines and automation tools.

Preferred Qualifications

- Cloud certifications (e.g., AWS Certified Solutions Architect, Microsoft Certified: Azure Solutions Architect, Google Professional Cloud Architect).
 - Experience with serverless architectures and microservices.
 - Familiarity with DevOps practices and agile methodologies.

Compensation and Benefits

- Competitive salary ($90,000–$120,000 annually).
- Health, dental, and vision insurance.
- 401(k) with company match.
- Paid time off and holidays.
- Opportunity for professional development and certification support.
